

Alice in Wonderland
Ch. 4 “The Rabbit Sends in a Little Bill”

Directions: After reading ch. 4, complete the following prompts and questions in your English notebooks, under unit 3, and be prepared to discuss them in class.

Comprehension:

1. Write a brief (5-6 sentence) summary of this chapter. Focus on the actions and the dialogue.

Critical Thinking:

2. Alice states, “When I used to read fairy tales, I fancied that kind of thing never happened, and now here I am in the middle of one!” What do you think this quote means? Does this connect to any of the themes we’ve discussed so far? Is Alice beginning to accept the “nonsense” of Wonderland now? How is she thinking differently about the world she left?

3. What do you think the house symbolizes in this chapter?

4. How is the rabbit's character different in this chapter than in previous chapters?

5. How does this chapter continue to develop the theme of “growth and change”?

6. How is the dog's behavior different than the other animals in Wonderland?

7. Do you have any other questions, insights or ideas about the story so far?
