

Life in Medieval Towns

Task: Complete a daily calendar page to describe what a typical day might have involved for someone living in a town in Medieval Europe. Your calendar page should have an hour-by-hour account of the day and include relevant details from the various aspects of the life you learned about. Begin your calendar page with the three entries shown below. Record your work in your history notebook, under unit one.

5:30 A.M. Rise from bed. Wash face with cold water. Pluck eyebrows. Tie hair in net and put on skirt and hat.

6:30 A.M. Eat breakfast (bread, cheese, weak cider). Throw scraps in street for hogs. Begin walking to market.

7:30 A.M. Pick up shoes from cobblers' guild. Ask master if his hand is healing properly.
