Read-A-Thon Comes to a Landing

After 12 days of reading, the Read-A-Thon has come to a landing! Great job everyone, that was a lot of reading! It's time to collect your pledges and turn them into the Front Office. The goal per student is $15...you can do it!

Pledges are due Monday, November 7th

Thank you all for participating!

More information is available online:

Thank you Odyssey Community!

We have filled LACMA's largest bus for the "Think Big" excursion this Sunday, November 4th! For those of you who have reserved your spot on the bus, it leaves Odyssey at 10:30am. The Odyssey parking lot will be open. For those of you who will arrive with your own transportation, if you park in the LACMA parking lot, the museum will take care of your parking. Bring your ticket to the Family Sundays welcome table for validation. The "Think Big" tours start at 1pm, 2pm and 3pm. They originate at the Family Sundays welcome table. The ArtsOdyssey Committee looks forward to seeing everyone!

LAST CHANCE!

We still need 40 recipes for the
"ODYSSEY EATS" cookbook!

Don't delay - submit yours today! It takes 5 minutes and will make a huge impact on the school, not to mention provide a wonderful keepsake for years to come - with delicious recipes from our community, artwork from our children, professional cover design by Liz Burrell, and much-needed funds for our beloved Odyssey Charter School! It only takes five (5) minutes, it's so easy to submit and it can be any recipe at all!

You can enter a recipe online:

- Got to: <http://www.typensave.com>
- Click "LOGIN" button and you will get to form page
- Contributor: (type your name as you would like it to appear in book)
